Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat,J.

Heard Sri B.S. Negi-learned counsel for the applicant, learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

It was contended on behalf of the applicant that the applicant is a student leader in a degree college, Barkote. It is alleged that the applicant-accused demanded a sum of Rs. 10,000/- and the case is triable by the Magistrate. It was contended that the examination of the applicant was scheduled to be commenced from the IInd fortnight of the month of March 2006. It was undertaken that the applicant may be allowed to come Barkote one day before each examination for appearing in each exam. After the examination, he will leave Barkote for Purola. Considering that the applicant is a student and other facts of this case, it is a fit case for bail. The applicant- accused shall be released on bail on the condition that the applicant–accused will furnish an undertaking before the Magistrate concerned that he will come to Barkote one day before each examination from Purola and after leaving the examination hall he will immediately leave for Purola. If he seeks admission again in the college, he will also furnish an undertaking that he will not visit any government or private office during the trial and will not misbehave with the public servant.

The applicant-accused will furnish a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the CJM concerned. The applicant-accused will also furnish an undertaking before the Magistrate to satisfy the above condition, failing which the bail order stands dismissed.
